

Swarnim Startup & Innovation University Activity Report 2019

| | |
|------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Department | SSIU general activity |
| Activity | Draw Your Dreams |
| Date | 30 th Jan 2019 |
| Duration | 5 hours |
| Semester | All |
| Expert Details | Guests Ms. Mini Joseph (ACP- women crime), Ahmedabad City Ms. Deepali Chhatwani (Journalist to Ahmedabad Times) Ms. Bansi Rajput (TV Journalist) Dr. Dimple Raval (HOD – Law, Raksha Shakti University). |
| Faculty Details | Mr. Deep Mehta -9825970602 Dr. Riddhi Ambavale – 8460158525 |
| Number of Participants | 300 |

Summary:

An opportunity for SSIU students to portray their secret dreams

Swarnim Startup and Innovation University conducted a magnificent event 'Draw your Dreams' for all streams of students. The Event penned down student's future goals on a sheet of paper. Chief Guest of the event was Ms. Mini Joseph - Assistant Commissioner of Police (women crime); Other invited guests were Miss Deepali Chhatwani (Journalist to Ahmedabad Times) ; Miss Bansi Rajput (TV Journalist) and Dr. Dimple Raval (HOD – Law, Raksha Shakti University). Ms. Mini Joseph in her speech motivated students by creating awareness about Cyber Crimes and also emphasized on follow one's dreams and also gave importance to their parents' advice. Additionally, she said never to use shortcut in life to reach the goals. Dr. Dimple Raval delivered cheerful speech and asked participants to focus on the path that lead to achieve their dream. Ms. Deepali Chhatwani during her speech, she invited students and faculty members on the stage and asked about their dreams and where they see themselves after 10 years from now. With this, she narrated her example and said what she dreamt and what she became after years of hard work and patience. Ms. Bansi Rajput explained her journey and shared how she followed her dream and reached her goal despite all odds of life and society. After guests speeches, Draw your Dreams competition kicked up at 1 PM and all participants looked their positions and started drawing their dreams. Participants were engrossed in penning their dreams. It was wonderful to see students' hidden talent and their expressions. Parallel with the competition, students of Homeopathy arranged the food stalls of Pani Puri, Basket Chat, Ice-cream etc. Guests, Faculty and students enjoyed the delicacies made by medico students. Best and unique dreams drawn were awarded prizes. They were evaluated by panel of judges – Mr. Adi Jain- President SSIU, Mr. Rishi Jain – Board Member, SSIU, Mr. Chandramauli Pathak – Entrepreneurship Expert, Mr. Ajit Pujara – Principal, School of Engineering. Post event, D.J. party was organized where all students and staff thoroughly enjoyed and danced on rocking music played by the DJ.

Aim:

Showcase latent dreams of youths of SSIU

Significance/Outcome:

Students portrayed their secret dreams and elucidated reasons and motives behind it.

Conclusion:

It was a vibrant event organized by SSIU. Students enjoyed the speeches and draw your dreams competition. They were given opportunity to speak up about their dreams and express their views.

Photographs:

